Cancellation Policy 2024

Date effective: 01/01/2024

Unfortunately, some events may need to be cancelled and as stated in our terms and conditions, we reserve the right to enforce a cancellation policy if the event is cancelled within a specified time frame. The terms of which are outlined below.

1. Deposit

- Larger events require a deposit of a percentage of the total amount agreed at the time of quoting, deposits already paid will count towards the amount owed on the event of an event being cancelled.
- All deposits should be received no less than 30 days in advance of the event to guarantee requirements can be met

2. Time and charges

 If your event is cancelled in the following time frames, the following charges apply

- I- I- 1
Time frame	Charge
>30 days in advance	Any purchases, subhire and other transactions related to the event already paid
30-21 days in advance	25% of total amount
20-14 days in advance	50% of total amount
7-13 days in advance	75% of total amount
< 7 days in advance	100% of total amount

3. Amounts Owed

 If your event is cancelled, the amount owed will be calculated and invoiced to you, the payment will be due 28 days after the invoice is sent.

4. Right to Amend

 We (Ewan MacQuire-Plows) reserve the right to amend this policy see fit for any hire. This policy will be reviewed on a yearly basis. If the policy is valid when the hirer agrees to the terms but becomes before the event takes place, the policy still stands